

For information contact:
Executive Director Lisa Egan
Reading-North Chamber of Commerce
978-664-5060
legan@nrchamber.com
www.readingnorthchamber.org

Press Release

State Senator Jason Lewis meets with Chamber and Reading Selectman

Reading, MA, February 13, 2015– State Senator Jason Lewis and his Chief of Staff Laura Richter met with several members of the Reading-North Reading Chamber of Commerce and Reading Selectman John Halsey last month at Fusion Café, a new Chamber business located on Main Street in Reading.

“We had an in-depth discussion about the business community and took away some great ideas to best support our members,” said Chamber President Lisa DeLeo, who owns and operates Lumina Salon in Reading.

Reading Selectman John Halsey, who is also a Chamber board member, added his insight into the local governments of Reading and North Reading. Halsey is proprietor of the Reading Bulldogs Baseball team.

“I was excited to receive Senator Lewis’s invitation to meet and discuss local issues,” said Chamber Executive Director Lisa Egan. “It demonstrates his desire to get involved with cities and towns in his district.”

-more-

---

---

The Reading-North Reading Chamber has over 200 members and provides them with networking, educational and promotional opportunities. The Chamber is dedicated to its members’ success and encourages participation in Chamber programs and events. For further information contact Executive Director Lisa Egan at 978-664-5060 or legan@nrchamber.com or visit the Chamber website www.readingnreadingchamber.org.

---

---

For immediate release 2-13-15